AVOYELLES PARISH COURT HOUSE

MARKSVILLE, LOUISIANA

It is with pride and pleasure that I endorse this book which is representative of the young men and women of Avoyelles Parish, who, when peril threatened, and their country called, did spring to arms against our foe. No sorrow for their loved ones and horror of the obstacles ahead could beat their courage down. They fought for us, for the country they loved, and they won, yes, they fought for us and won.

We shall always give honor with deepest reverence to those who fell. We will not remember them in anguish; they would not wish our pity. Each of us, because of what they gave, is debtor to them.

It is with great pride that I pay humble tribute to the men and women listed in this album, for they have successfully defended the principles of justice, freedom and democracy. May God permit you to enjoy these benefits forever.

Respectfully,

ROY J. FONTANE, Commander
Albin Dupuy Post No. 126
American Legion
Bunkie, Louisiana

A SALUTE FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION

In endorsing this book I feel a deep pride for those men and women who fought in and returned from the last Great War and a deep reverence for those who fought so nobly but failed to return. It is quite fitting and proper that we pay homage and dedicate this book to those who so proudly represented Avoyelles Parish in that great conflict. They fought that we who remain may continue the American way of life. Every relative and friend of those Veterans after reading the records of these gallant warriors should feel a greater appreciation of their sacrifices.

Through this book future generations will have a historical record of the contributions which these brave heroes have made in perpetuating justice, freedom and the principles of good government. Posterity will be inspired by its contents.

DANIEL M. RIDDLE, JR.
Post Commander
Prevot-Johnson Post No. 130
The American Legion.

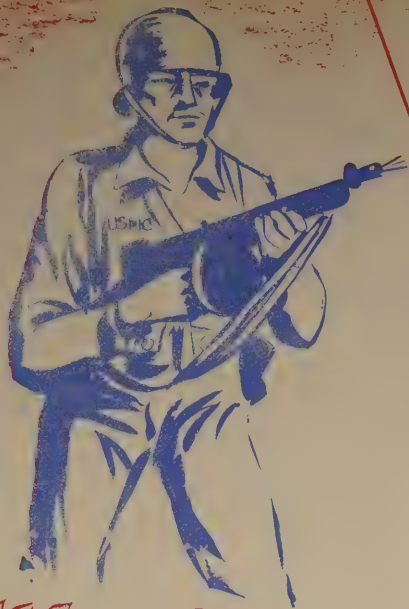

TO THE SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN OF AVOYELLES PARISH:

To those fine men and women of Avoyelles Parish who gave of their services to their country in time of crisis, and especially to those who paid the supreme sacrifice in order that America should remain a land of opportunity, a land of free speech, free thought and freedom to worship God according to the dictates of our individual consciences, this volume is sincerely, reverently and patriotically dedicated.

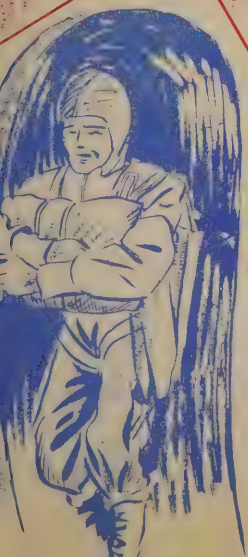

So that they may not have served and died in vain, we, as Veterans of Foreign Wars, pledge ourselves to guard, in peace, the principles for which they fought to uphold in war.
